

HIGHLIGHTS AND OBJECTIVES

- An Unconstrained Developed Markets Country Rotation Strategy with the Flexibility of Moving to Bonds and Cash: Tactical allocation solution that dynamically participates in country ETFs, bond ETF and cash.
- Aims for Consistent Returns Regardless of Market Conditions: Tactical positioning in the asset classes and equity with the best return potential.
- Dynamic Positioning to Managed downside Risk: Adaptive trend analysis identifies "risk off" regime to position in bonds or cash.
- Strives to Outperform the Benchmark over a Full Market cycle: The strategy aims to outperform MSCI EAFE Index over a full market cycle with lower risk.

Disclosures

This fact sheet is for the purpose of information exchange. This is not a solicitation or offer to buy or sell any security. You must do your own due diligence and consult a professional investment advisor before making any investment decisions. The use of a proprietary technique, model or algorithm does not guarantee any specific profitable results. Past performance is not indicative of future returns. The performance data presented are gross returns. The risk of loss in trading securities can be substantial. You should therefore carefully consider whether such trading is suitable for you in light of your financial condition. All information posted is believed to come from reliable sources. The investment performance shown on this page for the Julex Developed Markets strategy is HYPOTHETICAL. It is based on the back tests of historical data. Hypothetical performance results have many inherent limitations, some of which are described below. No representation is being made that any account will or is likely to achieve profit or losses similar to those shown. In fact, there are frequently sharp differences between hypothetical performance results and the actual results subsequently achieved by any particular trading program.

One of the limitations of hypothetical performance results is that they are generally prepared with the benefit of hindsight. In addition, hypothetical trading does not involve financial risk, and no hypothetical trading record can completely account for the impact of financial risk in actual trading. For example, the ability to withstand losses or adhere to a particular trading program in spite of trading losses are material points which can also adversely affect actual trading results. There are numerous other factors related to the markets in general or the implementation of any specific trading program which cannot be fully accounted for in the presentation of hypothetical performance results and all of which can adversely affect actual trading results.

Note on Data

In the back test, we used the index returns in case the historical returns of the ETFs are not long enough.
