The benchmark for the Julex High Dividend Strategy is the Vanguard High Dividend Yield Index ETF (VYM). The VYM ETF seeks to track the performance of the FTSE® High Dividend Yield Index, which measures the investment return of common stocks of companies characterized by high dividend yields. The VYM ETF is investible. The category for the Julex High Dividend Strategy is the Morningstar Large Cap Value Category. Portfolios in the large-value category invest primarily in big U.S. companies that are less expensive or growing more slowly than other large-cap stocks. The category is non-investible.

The Julex High Dividend strategy performance above is a live record of the Julex composite. The returns on a client account may be different due to the timing of trading and transaction costs. Performance is historical and does not guarantee future results. Account level performance may be higher or lower than the Composites. Total returns are shown gross and net of the higher of a 50bp or average composite account(s) advisory fee. Returns include the reinvestment of dividends and capital gains. A GIPS report is available upon request through the contact information below.

The composition of a benchmark index may not reflect the manner in which a Julex portfolio is constructed in relation to expected or achieved returns, investment holdings, portfolio guidelines, restrictions, sectors, correlations, concentrations, volatility, or tracking error targets, all of which are subject to change over time.
